

I am against The Consumer Bankers Association attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. This will weaken Indiana's nocall law and I am against any action that would do that.